

National Honour for Kertih Terminals

Kertih Terminals achieved another major milestone recently when it was conferred the Gold Award in the National Occupational Safety and Health Council's Excellence Award 2006.

KTSB CEO Law Say Huat, proudly received the award from the Prime Minister Datuk Seri Abdullah Ahmad Badawi at the National Occupational Safety and Health Council's Dinner cum Award Presentation Ceremony in Kuala Lumpur on 6th February 2007. The ceremony was witnessed by more than 1,000 representatives from the various industries; including members of Kertih Terminals SHE Committee.

The objective of the award is to give credit and national recognition to companies, which have demonstrated excellence performances in the area of occupational safety and health. The performance evaluation processes was carried out by the National Occupational Safety and Health's Panel of Auditors under the strict guidelines of Malaysian Occupational Safety and Health Management System.

Law Say Huat was quoted saying "I am very proud to receive the award on behalf of KTSB. This is another great achievement in our long journey to be the BEST and SAFEST terminal our customers and employees have ever worked with. It can only be possible because of all the commitment, dedication and hard work from all our colleagues, partners and contractors. Tahniah / Congratulations for the abovementioned achievement!"

All in all, the management recognized the great effort contributed by everyone towards this great achievement. Congratulations KTSB for a job well done!

KTSB CEO Law Say Huat receives the award from the Malaysian Prime Minister